In the first two years of the Ours To Own campaign in Denver, the Ours To Own partners:

- $5.1 million raised from hundreds of individual investors in the Denver region.
- The campaign catalyzed a total of $77 million in local investment, including financing small business growth and preserving affordable space for non-profits & social enterprises.
- 7,100 individuals annually served through the non-profits supported.
- 5,536 jobs created or retained.
- 426 businesses or non-profit organizations financially supported.
Disabled Desert Storm veteran Kevin was excited to open up his own Harley Davidson repair shop but struggled to get access to a loan. Supported by funding from Ours To Own, Community Reinvestment Fund gave Kevin a loan to buy real estate equipment and inventory. Today his business RoadSkulls V-Twin Performance is thriving.

The Urban Land Conservancy (ULC) used Ours To Own funding to finance the Social Enterprise Foundry, a warehouse in Denver’s Sun Valley neighborhood. The Foundry houses several nonprofits and social enterprises that employ nearly 150 people in jobs that support regional efforts to be more sustainable.
